The following children respected one of the Rights under Southway's Sun & Stars School Charter

Name	Class	Right Respected Date : 20 th March 2018
Arya Kangralkar	Dali	For respecting our right to be treated equally by being a polite and respectful member of the class.
Ben Butterworth	Picasso	For respecting our right to be treated equally by being a lovely friend through thinking of others.
Kenzie Fox	Turner	For respecting our right to learn and achieve together by working hard, having excellent learning behaviour and being a caring friend.
George Seager	Dickens	For respecting our right to learn and achieve together by working well with others.
Sinead Baynes	Rowling	For respecting our right to a clean and tidy environment.

The following children respected one of the Rights under Southway's Sun & Stars School Charter

Louis Mainwaring	Shakespeare	For respecting our right to learn and achieve together by being focused in the drumming workshop and persevering with the drum rhythm.
Natalie Montiel	Curie	For respecting our right to a clean and tidy environment
Oliver Mahkonen	Einstein	For respecting our right to a clean and tidy environment by looking after our environment and working as a team.
Matilda Manley-Jones Hawking		For respecting our right to be treated equally by being a great friend and supportive partner.